Enhancing Experiential Learning Opportunities through Coursework: The Case of Applied Sport Marketing

Jaime DeLuca, Towson University

Teaching & Learning Fair - Experiential/Service Learning (Other) Saturdays, June 1, 2019 9:20 AM
Teaching & Learning Fair Presentation Room: Borgne
Abstract 2019-306

Experiential learning is an important component of sport management programs, with the discipline trending towards offering more applied learning experiences for students (Sattler, 2018). This presentation explains the administration, delivery, and pedagogical value of Applied Sport Marketing, a course providing students an opportunity to create and execute a marketing plan.